

Dog Counselor at All Dogs Club

We are a local dog daycare and grooming facility located in the heart of College Park, MD. We are looking for friendly, reliable dog counselors who are passionate about animals and are interested in growth opportunities. Our pet counselors are trained on-site and spend time in our open-play playrooms with daycare and overnight boarding dogs. Our dog counselors are responsible for maintaining healthy, safe, clean play environments and grooming services for our four-legged guests.

This position does not require experience in a particular field, but experience with animals is a plus. We will provide all training and materials needed.

Our ideal candidate is:

- Reliable, responsible and on time for their shifts.
- Available to work evenings, weekends and holidays.
- Interested in learning more about dog and cat care, open to learning new things.
- Passionate about animals and comfortable in an open-play playroom setting with large groups of dogs of various breeds.
- Interested in growth within our organization. We are a fast-growing facility and we're always looking to promote from within.
- Creative and adaptable. Each day at work is different and exciting.
- Physically able. We require dog counselors to be able to stand and interact with animals for 5-6 hours at a time.

This position includes:

- Maintaining pack order and safety within the indoor and outdoor play areas.
- Maintaining a clean, healthy, frequently sanitized environment for the animals.
- Grooming responsibilities such as bathing, nail trimming, brush-outs etc.
- Facility maintenance and cleaning.
- Dog walking and feeding.

Required education and work experience:

- High school diploma or equivalent (GED) is preferred.
- Must be US citizen or Permanent Resident Card holder, or hold Employment Authorization Document.
- Work or experience with animals is preferred.
